

The Villages of Irvine offers everything you desire in a new home and community, whether you're searching for your first home or your dream home. Quiet streets and parks on virtually every corner provide ideal environments for families of all kinds. With numerous architectural options, lush landscaping and resort-style amenities including pools, athletic fields and community centers, the Villages of Irvine enables homebuyers to find a home that fits their own personal style.

What sets us apart:

- Each village contains a wide range of neighborhoods and amenities that help ensure a high quality of life and long-term investment value.
- Village amenities include access to award-winning schools, abundant parks, trails and open space, nearby retail centers and proximity to job centers.
- Stewardship of over 57,000 acres of permanently protected parks, trails and open space through the Irvine Ranch Conservancy, which provides many recreational opportunities for residents and the knowledge that the land will be open space forever.
